

AMERICA NEEDS MORE FAMILY FAITH-BASED FILMS

Writer/Producer/Director Christopher Hensel, who played motorcycle cousin Jeb Stuart Duke on the Dukes of Hazzard, plans to do just that.

PROMOTE YOUR LOCAL BUSINESS WHILE BEING PART OF MOVIE MAKING HISTORY!

Salvage Yard "Shine" Boys is a Patriotic Family Faith-Based film series that tracks a young country western singer's journey to stardom. While Kat is working for her moonshining, but functioning, alcoholic parents and grandfather at the Salvage Yard, she writes music and sings at her church and local talent shows. Kat is a gifted artist, but her greatest gift is the angel who sings words of encouragement and urges her to help bring her bitter (Vietnam Veteran) Grandfather back to the church. However, she gets kidnapped by an old high school bully turned hardened criminal who is seeking revenge against the family. Kat's father and uncle who have been estranged for over 21 years must put their differences aside to bring her home.

When was the last time you felt comfortable watching a film with your family without worrying about its content? This series reflects the Christian values of the McGrath family who are dealing with bitter estrangements, bending the law to make ends meet, relying on faith in moments of both joy and heartache, fighting tooth and nail to fulfill their destinies. Appropriate for all ages, this slice of Americana will feature special musical guest stars, car chases, and a literal barn burning finale that will keep you on the edge of your seat.

Jeb Stuart Productions was formed to put faith and family back into the film industry. The first movie of the series will be shot on location in Tennessee this Fall of 2020 and be released in early 2021. Our vision is to provide local investors/advertisers - who share a belief in God, practice their faith, and want to promote family values - the opportunity to bring wholesome entertainment back into films.
